AUTHENTIC

EXPERIENCE THE

True Lifestyle

The fifth largest old order Amish community in Pennsylvania is in Lawrence County.

Learn about their culture with a drive yourself map or a guided tour of homes, businesses, and the Amish Countryside!

Residents

The Old Order Amish sect in Lawrence County settled around 1847. Currently, there are approximately 2,000 Amish residents in 14 church districts surrounding the villages of New Wilmington and Volant. The average family has seven children with each, starting at the age of seven, having daily chores to complete.

Clothing

Amish are easily identified by their appearance. The men grow a beard once they marry and always wear a hat. The women's dress, primarily in blue, are dosed with straight pins rather than buttons because the church feels that buttons are too showy. They always wear a covering on their heads.

Language

Amish speak a dialect of German known as Pennsylvania Dutch, the language spoken at home. English is taught to children beginning in first grade.

Homes

The Amish live on farms without the convenience of electricity. Many Amish homes include additions or small detached dwellings called “dawdy” houses, where grandparents live.

Graveyard

A small nondescript Amish graveyard is located behind the white gate at the intersection of Auction Road and High Street outside New Wilmington. The small stones remember Amish; the larger stones remember Mennonites.

Schoolhouses

Most of the Amish children attend one of 17 different Amish-run parochial schools in the area. When in session, 25 to 30 children from first to eighth grade are enrolled in each. To complete school they must take and pass a difficult eight-grade proficiency test.

Auction House

The Auction House is located off Route 208 in New Wilmington. Amish and English farmers meet at the market every Monday to socialize and purchase goods such as livestock and kerosene.

Transportation

The Amish mode of transportation is a horse and buggy, although for work or long distance travel they will ride a bus or hire a vehicle to transport them. Brown-capped buggies are unique to Lawrence County.

Photographs

While touring the Amish Countryside, please refrain from taking direct photos of Amish faces. This is forbidden by the church because they consider the human spirit more important than the body.

A unique sect of Christian separatists, the Amish are hard working, tax paying people. When driving through the scenic area, it is not uncommon to come upon a hand-painted sign advertising homemade or handcrafted items. Feel free to stop by and see what the family has to offer.

FIREWORKS

Spark

YOUR INTEREST
IN THE FIREWORKS
AMERICA

The first fireworks manufacturer in New Castle was Leopoldo Fazzoni, who owned and operated Fazzoni Brothers Fireworks Company in 1886.

Many who worked with Fazzoni later established their own businesses and legend has it that there were as many as seven major fireworks manufacturers in New Castle. References were found to five:

- Fazzoni Brothers Fireworks Company, Leopoldo Fazzoni
- Rozzi Fireworks Company, Paul Rozzi
- Syndicate Fireworks Company, Jacob Conti
- Vitale Fireworks Manufacturing Company, Constantino Vitale
- Zambelli Internationale, Antonio Zambelli

Today, the nation's most prestigious manufacturing and display company, Pyrotecnico (formerly Vitale Fireworks) is headquartered in New Castle. A fireworks retailer, Sky King Fireworks, is also located in the community.

The Fireworks Capital of America registered trademark was issued to the community in 2006.
